

Baron's 33 Points, Forfeit Mark City Play

Another forfeit game highlighted the Adult City League cage play Tuesday, when the Blue Devils could not field a five man team and the nod was given to Frank's Furniture by a 20 score.

Manager Chic Clechini forfeited the contest when only four Blue Devils were present for the scheduled tilt. A few minutes after the forfeit announcement, however, three of the Devil's players appeared, but the forfeit stood on the records.

In an exhibition tussle, Frank's clobbered the Devils, 44-24 but no running tally was kept on scoring.

Cityworkers Local 1135 outscored Knoll's Drug, 78-32, in the first game of the evening, at the Torrance High School gym.

Paul Smith, the Cityworker's tall pivot man, looped in 28 points to pave the way for the victory. Forward Bill Hasvold had 16 for Local 1135, to take runner-up scoring honors.

Center Lee Mortenson led the leaders. He had eight points from his pivot post.

In the final Tuesday game, the league-leading Allen's Burgers five trounced Treske's Men's Shop, 67-43.

Bill Baron, rangy Burger forward, drove home 35 points to spark the winner's surge. Jerry Farrar, Baron's running mate at forward, had 13 for the Allen's Burgers squad.

Norm Chambers and Darl Mead each tanked 12 counters to top the Treske's team scoring.

The locals tied Monrovia, 18-18, but were measured by the host Arcadia team, 24-12.

Department of Fish, Game Sets Hunter Safety Class

More effective use of audio-visual aids will be emphasized in this year's adult education classes for hunter safety instructors, according to Leslie E. Lahr, in charge of hunter safety training for the California Department of Fish and Game.

The work in audio-visual aids has been developed with the help of George H. Metcalfe, department training officer. It will include material on how to use the department's safety movies to best advantage, and instruction on the operation of movie and slide projectors.

Tips on construction of special training aids—sighting bars, charts, and such handy props as mock boats, autos and fences, will be included.

Classes are scheduled to begin next month in most parts of the state. Many of last year's classes will be operating again, and new groups will be starting in several areas.

The hunter safety instructor course may be set up under the Department of Education's adult education program where there are facilities and a sufficient number of persons who show interest.

The classes are open to all firearms enthusiasts who wish to become hunter safety instructors, and to already qualified instructors who want to improve their teaching techniques.

Tartars in Track Win

TORRANCE VARSITY, B'S TOP LOYOLA

Torrance's track Tartars clobbered Loyola's preppers Friday afternoon as the local Varsity and B teams triumphed, but the Loyola Cees tripped the Torrance Cees by two points.

Dennis Hester scored two wins for the Tartar Varsity as they turned back Loyola, 67-23 to 36-13.

Hester romped home the winner in the 880 in the time of 2:07.7 and copped the high jump at 5'9".

Gary Cooke, who blazed home first in a 10.5 century and who placed second in the furlongs, also aided the local's cause.

Rainwater, another Tartar sprinter, was second to Cooke in the 100, but turned around and took the 220 out of Cooke's grasp with a good time of 22.5.

Gene Daimler of Torrance took the Varsity pole vault with a leap of 11 feet. Jim Powers took Torrance's other first place in the Varsity meet. He won the broad jump at 20' 8-1/8".

Duane Cooke and Jerry Dallendorfer came in second and third for the Tartars in both the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard lows. Loyola's Ronnie Parker took both races.

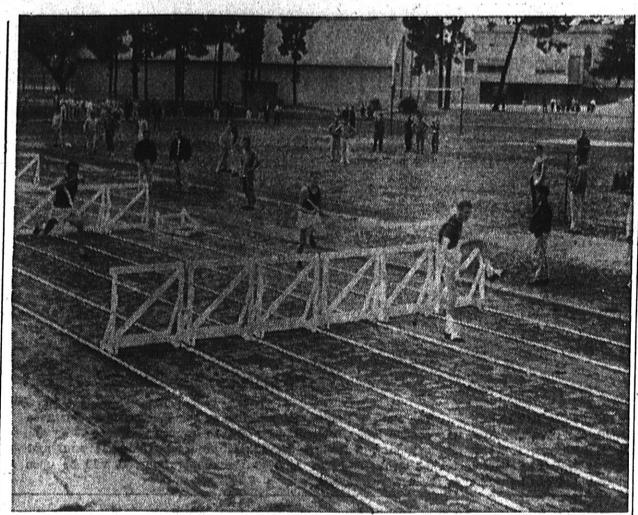

Top marks for the Tartar Bee tracksters included Jack Parker's 11-foot leap in the pole vault; Bill Meacham's 1:34.8 time in winning the 660; and Dick Dentwood's 24.6 time in capturing the 220-yard dash.

In the Class C meet, Torrance's George Boscon turned in a good 11.2 clocking in coping the 100-yard sprint. Tartar Al Blodac scored nine feet to win the Class C pole vault.

The Tartars next meet Santa Monica High. Friday, in a dual meet at Samohi.

Coach Willard Morgan's spikesmen will make their final home stand of the season on March 25, when they dual with Leuzinger on the Torrance field.

Morgan said that only two meets were being held on the local track this season because of the poor condition of the oval.

The same runners finished in the same order in the 180-yard low hurdles race. Tartar Varsity and B's won, but Torrance C squad was edged by the visitors.
